George Wilsey's "True Story" Column

It's time again for the annual 'Stella Awards'! For those unfamiliar with these awards, they are named after 81-year-old Stella Liebeck who spilled hot coffee on herself and successfully sued the McDonald's in New Mexico, where she purchased coffee. You remember, she took the lid off the coffee and put it between her knees while she was driving. Who would ever think one could get burned doing that, right? That's right; these are awards for the most outlandish lawsuits and verdicts in the U.S. You know, the kinds of cases that make you scratch your head.

Here is the SEVENTH PLACE Stella Awards for the year 2016: Kathleen Robertson of Austin, Texas was awarded $80,000 by a jury of her peers after breaking her ankle tripping over a toddler who was running inside a furniture store. The store owners were understandably surprised by the verdict, considering the running toddler was her own son.

Fines

May 12

Bob Scott had a happy dollar for a record-fast board meeting. Allen Yergovich had an apology dollar for being our speaker at the meeting. Jan Merrick paid a fine because none of us can hear what she has to say anyways, so now we don't have to pretend to listen. John Anders was fined for lying because he said he has been good lately. Ed Lillich was fined for missing Ronald McDonald House, but Ed also had a happy dollar for Chris Lillich's retinal surgery going well. Larry Sousa had happy dollar for the great turnout at Bay Pines Clean-up and he had a pat on the back for Cicely Wulff and Jean Levi for their hard work promoting the Hats a Yard. Richard French was also given a pat on the back for his hard work and his Key Club's hard work at the Bay Pines cleanup. Fred Walsingham paid a dollar because he didn't have change. Don Knowles gave Fred Walsingham a pat on the back though for his hard work and dedication at bingo every single week. Jim Humphries was fined for missing an occasional bingo. Jack Bowman paid a happy dollar for our young helper at Ronald McDonald House. Anne Rogers was fined for telling the finemaster how to do his job. David Morris paid a dollar because both of his daughters are always telling him what to do. Cicely Wulff had a happy dollar for collecting 149 yards of hats. Pat Harden also had a happy dollar for Cicely and Jean's work collecting hats. Ed Morris had a sad dollar because of how the Rays are performing. Bill Knowles paid a fine because he missed the board meeting to umpire. George Wilsey paid a dollar and told us a joke. Bill Knowles also had to chime in with a joke. Rick Hitt and Barbara Wagner both liked George's joke better. Barbara also had a happy dollar because she received a mother's day card from her granddog.

"YOU LOOK JUST LIKE THE GUY IN THAT PICTURE, DAD."
