George Wilsey's "True Story" Column

It's time again for the annual 'Stella Awards'! For those unfamiliar with these awards, they are named after 81-year-old Stella Liebeck who spilled hot coffee on herself and successfully sued the McDonald's in New Mexico, where she purchased coffee. You remember, she took the lid off the coffee and put it between her knees while she was driving. Who would ever think one could get burned doing that, right? That's right; these are awards for the most outlandish lawsuits and verdicts in the U.S. You know, the kinds of cases that make you scratch your head.

PLACE

Carl Truman, 19, of Los Angeles , California won $74,000 plus medical expenses when his neighbor ran over his hand with a Honda Accord. Truman apparently didn't notice there was someone at the wheel of the car when he was trying to steal his neighbor's hubcaps.

Fines

May 19

Rick Hitt was fined for delaying the meeting by not having the 50/50 tickets ripped up in time. Lee Walters fined himself for being a week early to the DCM. He also had a happy dollar for the upcoming 60th anniversary with his wife and for his great grandchild coming to visit. Kenny Alderman was fined by Lee for embarrassing him and calling him out on his early arrival. Jan Merrick was fined for being old enough to have a great grandchild. Bob Scott had a happy dollar because in two weeks he gets to see his great grand child too. Bill Knowles is happy/sad that he has no great grandchildren or even grandchildren. We were all happy/sad that Bill had no jokes for us. Pat Harden was fined for giving us a very loud (and nice!) invocation. Don Knowles had a dollar for "whatever". Fred Walsingham had a grateful dollar for the wonderful air conditioning we get to enjoy. David Morris was fined for not having control of Habitat for Humanity schedule and making his son-in-law work on Mother's Day. Cicely Wulff, Elizabeth Wulff, and Vickie Waller all had a happy dollar for a nice mother's day. George Wilsey told us a joke (about another Texan). Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar because she enjoyed the Texas joke. Jean Levi was fined for (falsely) accusing Jack Bowman of locking up money at bingo. Jack Bowman had a happy dollar that Kenny (supposedly) stuck up for him.
