Fines June 29

Kenny Alderman was fined for having bad thoughts. Jan Merrick had a happy dollar for Kenny Alderman's bad thoughts. Jean Levi had a happy dollar that she is on vacation and that she has her two sisters visiting. Jim Humphries was fined for bothering Kenny Alderman. Jim is also happy he is going on vacation. Jack Bowman had a happy dollar for Jean's sisters visiting, and was also fined for audibly saying he has to turn off his phone so he doesn't get fined.

George Wilsey was fined for not knowing the difference between the pledge and invocation. Don Knowles was fined for not knowing how to use the navigation system in his new car. Phil Miller-Evans paid a dollar because he knows how to get home, but apparently doesn't know what week it is, and printed the wrong information in the newsletter. Our finemaster pointed out that no one here will criticize our newsletter (or the criticizer may find him/herself as the new editor). Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar because she lives by herself and is always happy with her own company. Pat Harden had a dollar because she is concerned about George Wilsey's unusual, yet patriotic, invocation. David Morris is just happy to be here. Cicely Wulff was fined for the explosions going on at her neighbor's house. Anne Rogers is just happy she wasn't there for the toilet explosions. Ed Morris paid a dollar for the interest in selling his house, and for all of George's hard and thoughtful work on the invocation. Vickie Waller paid a happy dollar for a productive meeting with the incoming president. Elizabeth Wulff had a dollar simply for "all the crazy things."

We had a fun time at this week's program at the direction of Jean Levi:

George Wilsey—I am an accountant; I used to hunt with Rick Hitt; I was a CIC Agent during the Cold War. George, you can't hide that you are a lawyer. Don Knowles—I was a cowboy; I was a youth worker with Kiwanis; I am a golfer. Some of us questioned if you are a golfer, but you were only a cowboy playing Lone Ranger. Cicely Wulff—I have 5 grandchildren; I have a Bachelors Degree in Nursing; I have a great-great nephew. You are smart with only AA Certificates. Susan Stocks (Jean's sister)—I have 4 children; I am a widow, I have 3 sisters and a brother. It may have felt like you had more children than you really did. Jan Merrick—I hate to get up in the morning; I am pregnant; I want to join Kiwanis. Jan, we think you have two lies here. David Morris—married 58 years; served in the Navy; has 3 grand children. We think you were married long—enough to say these are three truths. Jim Humphries—have my pilot's license; grew up on Clearwater Beach; born in Milwaukee. I wouldn't admit to being born in NJ either. Jean Levi—I lived in 8 states; I have been married more than once; I moved here from Miami. Portland is a much better place to have come from. Elizabeth Wulff I have visited 6 continents, 39 states and 77 countries; I used to work for a professional wrestler; I have been blessed by Pope John Paul II. Show off and you had to inflate the number of states you have visited. Vickie (Jones) Waller—one my first times in court was to represent a lady who tried to run over her husband's girlfriend in the yard in front of the kids; I had a probate case where I had to find homes for 23 cats; sometimes I make up fines for the Sunshiner. We know the last one is definitely a truth. JB—ex cop; mechanic; wealthy. What's your definition of wealth? Barbara Wagner—lived in 20 houses in 20 years; didn't step in my home state until I was 12; I moved from NY to CT. Very tricky, leaving home state as an infant so "stepped" into home state when 12 yrs. old.

Kenny Alderman—I have 6 siblings; I wish I was an attorney; I am glad I no longer drive racecars. Sorry, the lawyer table is full. Pat Hardin—I flew in a B-17, B-24 and a Mustang; I received 1st prize showing cattle in 4-H, my Dad was founding member of Kiwanis clubs in the 1950s and 1960s. We all thought that quiet Pat couldn't have flown all those planes. We were wrong. So what did you win first prize for? Ed Morris—has been married 30 years in September; he has BUCS season tickets, he has no kids. We're sorry you had to give up the BUCS tickets. Barbara Saylor (Jean's other sister) - I am not really Jean's sister; I am a middle child; I live on a sailboat. We are wondering the about the story as to why you don't want to claim Jean as your sister. Maybe you can tell us that story next time. Anne Rogers—has worked at JC Penny for 35+ years; I have been married 30 years; and my favorite color is blue. We're gonna tell Wayne that your marriage feels soooo long. Phil Miller-Evans—My family has residences in 3 countries; I would like to be a contestant on Master Chef; I have personally met four US Presidents in office. Phil, like Beth, is a bit of a show off, although under stating the countries his family has residences (US, Nova Scotia, S. Korea, Macau, Panama, Netherlands and South Africa) We have some good liars in this club!!!
