Fines

Jan Merrick was fined for being a week late with her agenda. Jean Levi had a sad dollar because her kitchen is torn apart. Bill Knowles was fined because he couldn't provide proof that he had actually purchased the Casino Night tickets. Bill Knowles also paid a dollar to tell us a surprisingly funny joke. George Wilsey was fined for having the same joke as Bill. Pat Harden even had a happy dollar for Bill's joke. Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar because Rick Hitt messed up her 50/50 tickets. David Morris had a sad dollar because he pulled the wrong 50/50 ticket. Cicely Wulff had a tired dollar because they had nine babies in one shift. Anne Rogers was fined because she gives a good illusion of being a good girl. Elizabeth Wulff was fined because the Finemaster, Kenny Alderman, gained four pounds because of the Girl Scout Cookies she sold him. Bob Scott had a happy dollar because he's feeling good and enjoying watching the Olympics. Phil Miller-Evans had a happy and sad dollar. He's happy he came back from skiing without crutches, but sad because he came back without a gold medal. Rick Hitt was fined for looking innocent. Annabelle Waller was fined for having her feet on the table. John Anders was fined for making Kenny Alderman sit by himself. Don Knowles had a happy dollar for the great CKI Alumni Meeting, but a sad dollar that Donna Parton's niece's husband died in the Stoneman Douglas school shooting. Jack Bowman had a proud dollar for our new Kiwanis sign at the entrance of Red Lobster.
