Fines

Bill Knowles was our substitute Finemaster last Friday. Jan Merrick was fined for all of the publicity she received at District Convention – especially since her video opening the Friday lunch at convention went viral. Jean Levi was fined because she didn't stack the card deck to make sure she won the 50/50 prize.... The prize isn't quite high enough yet. Don Knowles had a happy dollar for his great time in DC the week before. Dave Morris and Bob Scott were fined a dollar for not attending District Convention (not that our Finemaster did either...). George Wilsey was mad that the Finemaster didn't have change for $1.00. Ed Lillich had a happy dollar for the Rays – and Ed and Chris are happy that they had their 13th great grandchild on Monday. Anne Rogers is happy for her birthday month. Allen Yergovich was fined for being fashionably late. Phil Miller-Evans was fined for wearing a shirt and a name badge with his name on it. Vickie Waller is happy the permitting was finally approved for her house to build the addition. Holly Suddeth is happy to be a guest at our meeting. Kenny Alderman was fined for trying to fine the substitute Finemaster. Elizabeth Wulff had a happy dollar that the Mad Hatter Tea Party is starting to come together and happy that Pinellas Park Kiwanis gave us $250.00 for the event.
