Ask a Stupid Question Day

Also known as National Ask a Stupid Question Day

Observed the last weekday of September

Fines Sept. 21

Jan Merrick was fined for starting her last meeting of the Kiwanis year late. Jan used Jean as an excuse for starting the meeting late – claiming Jean wouldn’t sit down. David Morris had a happy dollar for his new haircut. Richard French had a happy dollar that his place up in the Carolinas did not have a problem with the hurricane. Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar for her upcoming cruise to Key West and Cuba. Bill Knowles had a sad dollar because he recently learned that 6 of 7 of Snow White’s dwarves were not happy. Don Knowles had a sad dollar for Bill’s sad attempt at a joke and sad he claims kinship with him. Bob Scott had a happy dollar to be at the meeting. Lee Walters was fined for being a guest. Allen Yergovich was fined because he did not disappoint our predictions to our guests that he would be the last one at the meeting. John Anders had a happy dollar to have Anne Marie and Zoey at the club meeting. Elizabeth Wulff was fined for being crazy – or something thereabouts J. Phil Miller-Evans told us an ellahuva good joke. George Wilsey was so sad that the Rays blew it, that he didn't even have a joke for us. Bill from Seminole Breakfast had a sad dollar because he can't see and his son forgot his driver's license, so they were going to have a time getting home. Anne Rogers and Cicely Wulff had a happy dollar to be sitting in a new spot. Annabelle Waller had a happy dollar because she will be taking a really good nap that afternoon. Holly Suddeth had a happy dollar for being at the meeting. Kenny Alderman was just happy.
