 JIM'S MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

March 31, 2018

ON THE ROAD WITH JIM

Join President Jim on the road as he opens Kiwanis clubs around the world. Next month, Jim will host his quarterly webcast live from Denver, Colorado, to share the latest Kiwanis news and give an update on membership. The webcast will be at 8 p.m. (Eastern Time) Monday, April 9, 2018.

The webcasts are free and available to any Kiwanis member. Registration gives you a link to join the webcast and saves you a "seat." And you'll want to register, because seats are limited!

Fines

Jan Merrick was fined for calling Kenny Alderman with an obscene phone call. Jean Levi was fined for wanting a dollar. Phil Miller-Evans had a happy dollar because he's hanging in there, which we soon learned why that was a valiant feat. Don Knowles fined Kenny Alderman because when he was out with the flu from Kiwanis his buddy, Kenny Alderman, did not call to check up on his Kiwanis Buddy. Bill Knowles was fined for spending 8 hours at the Rays game. Bill was happy though that the Rays won and he told us a joke. Bill Knowles was fined again because young ears that were at the meeting shouldn't have to hear that joke. Ed Lillich had a happy dollar that the Rays scored at the bottom of the 8th. Richard French was tired after taking his grandson to the park - he can't run around like he used to. David Morris asked what is this running thing that Richard mentioned. Cicely Wulff has a happy dollar to have family here and happy she's done cleaning walls. George Wilsey had a happy dollar for the Rays win and that he received an appropriate greeting when he came in, and he also told us a joke. Addy and Lily paid a dollar because they didn't get George's joke. Larry Sousa was fined for being too well-behaved. Henry TenBrink was fined for giving us a brilliant cheer, complete with pom poms and dancing. Bob Scott was fined for not cheerleading, but he was too distracted by our stand-in cheerleader. Kenny Alderman had a happy dollar because Annabelle Waller doesn't look at Kenny the way she was looking at Henry was he was cheerleading. Pat Harden had a Happy Easter dollar. Barbara Wagner paid a dollar to wish everyone a happy egg hunt. Allen Yergovich was fined for being late... he won't tell Vickie anymore why he is late after she tattled on him. Vickie Waller had a sad dollar because she'll miss her cohort, Allen... he'll be gone the whole month of April. Jim Humphries was fined for not having a Fred report. Jack Bowman just had a happy dollar to be at the meeting.
