Fines Aug. 10

Jan Merrick was fined for speaking too soft so the fine-writer could not hear her fine or happy dollar. Jack Bowman was fined for coming to the board meeting without a report. Pat Harden had a happy dollar because she was happy and had no complaints. George Wilsey had a surprised dollar because Annabelle could understand what he said. He also told us a joe. Vickie Waller was fined for lying saying she's had no indiscretions lately. Phil Miller-Evans got a pat on the back for all the hard work he does putting together the Sunshiner every week. Allen Yergovich was fined for pushing Jean Levi out of the way on the way into the meeting today so he would not be the last one at the meeting. Allen is also happy that the ducks have made it to Miami. Anne Rogers had a dollar because "it's been a week." Cicely Wulff was fined for being negative that Bill Wulff has lost a lot of weight. David Morris had a happy dollar because his doctor gave him a three month guarantee. Larry Sousa was fined for improperly distributing the Sunshiner. Bill Knowles had a happy dollar his cousin Don Knowles lent him a $1. He also had a curious dollar because he ordered a chicken and an egg from Amazon and he's waiting to see which will come first. Don Knowles had a sad dollar this week, for the same reason he had a happy dollar last week (his car was to be ready, by a certain Finemaster by Wednesday). Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar because it's her turn to read to kids this week. Jean Levy had a happy dollar to be in the top 10 for her region for the second quarter. Elizabeth Wulff had a sad dollar that her car window wont' close, but a happy dollar that school starts on Monday. Addison Crawford is glad school is starting so she can get out of the house. Wayne Rogers had a happy dollar to be working with Anne... this week....

Human And Spiritual Aims

Over the past few months I have not reported the giving of our members, but they have been regularly dropping things off to me.

2 1/4 pounds of aluminum pull tabs to support Ronald McDonald House

180 box tops for education donated to North Shore Elementary

$30 value of dental and hygiene products donated to Daystar

We are planning the 7th Annual Prayer Breakfast for Saturday, February 16 at First Baptist Church, Gandy Blvd.

Our speaker will give a brief history on Gasplant City (sight of the current Tropicana Field) and speak to racial reparation for the new development of 88 acres. This is a project of Auburn Seminary, NYC. The Vice President is a high school friend of Phil Miller-Evans, the Reverend John Vaughn. Together they are working with other community faith leaders to record the history of Gasplant City and looking at a just redevelopment plan for the 88 acres.

Our Signature Project

The Mad Hatter Tea Party

The Mad Hatter Tea party is a day of Joy, Smiles, and most of all, Memories for the Pinellas County kids that go through the foster care system because of child abuse and neglect.

Angels Against Abuse put on this event for 5 years and last year (2017) upon hearing that they could no longer do it, Sunshine City Kiwanis stepped up and decided to take over the event.

Thanks, Bill Knowles, for your work on this site.

Social

The James Museum has its roots in the deeply felt passion for art and culture shared by co-founders Tom and Mary James, and in the couple's love for St. Petersburg, the city where they live.

Years ago, when their travels took them out West, they were captivated by the art, landscape and wildlife. The art of action and attention to place created by contemporary artists greatly moved them, and they began buying pieces not only for their personal pleasure, but also to help the artists earn a living. These two dedicated patrons of the arts collected works in oil, in ink, in stone; works that define genres yet defy labels; works that evoke the spirit of a wide open frontier and the beauty of life in the wild. Since their first acquisition, a vast artistic legacy has grown — one populated by emerging artists and living legends and filled with tribal tradition and classical finesse.

In building this splendid home for a part of their vast personal collection of Western and wildlife art, Tom and Mary also have succeeded in their aim to share their vision and devotion to art with you and thousands of others.
