Fines

Jean Levi was fined for slacking in her duties because Key Club was running the meeting. Phil Miller-Evans had his fine for Kenny last week – that Kenny was afraid to fine Phil ever because Kenny didn't want to risk going to hell for fining a man of the cloth. Richard French was fined for being a dignitary as Kiwanis advisor for Lakewood. Barbara Wagner had a happy dollar that she would get to read to the children this upcoming week. Pat Harden was fined for not being fineable. Bill Knowles paid a dollar to tell us a surprisingly funny joke. Cicely Wulff was fined for not making the board meeting. Jan Merrick was fined because she doesn't remember what she forgot. Bob Scott had a hopeful dollar for the Bucs for next season. David Morris was fined for being smiley. Ed Morris was fined for visiting the Finemaster in an attempt to suck up to him. Larry Sousa had a proud dollar for the extraordinary work Lakewood Key Club is doing. Don Knowles had a happy dollar for all of the former and present Key Clubbers. Rick Hitt had a happy dollar for Lakewood Key Club being there as a former Key Clubber himself. Rick Hitt also had a happy dollar that Dick Keller's daughter was able to join our meeting. Miss Dee Alston had a happy dollar because it's never quiet at a Sunshine City meeting. Vickie Waller had a happy dollar to see such well-spoken Key Clubbers at the meeting. Kenny Alderman had a happy dollar that his son visited him that week with his new girlfriend – a Kiwanian in Lakeland Kiwanis.
